4. Get advice and support

✓ Issues you might need advice and support with
(4a)	Do you need help claiming disability benefits or making sure you're getting the right amount?	Disability benefits are more complicated than other types of benefits because they generally involve a medical assessment. You may need help to understand if you qualify and how much you should get, fill in forms and challenge decisions. We can help with these issues.
(4b)	Are you affected by the benefit cap ?	The benefit cap limits the total amount of benefits that working age people can get. It can make it difficult to pay for everything - if you're affected by the benefit cap you may need advice about becoming exempt and additional support like a Discretionary Housing Payment. We can help with this issue.
(4c)	Are you affected by the bedroom tax ?	The bedroom tax reduces the Housing Benefit of Housing Costs Element of Universal Credit if you have a spare bedroom and rent a council or housing association property. If you're affected by the bedroom tax you may need advice about becoming exempt and additional support like a Discretionary Housing Payment. We can help with this issue.

(4d)	Do you need help managing debts ?	If you have individual repayment plans for debts you can end up paying too much in total. A debt adviser can help you set up a repayment plan that lets you pay off your debts over a few years. They can also advise you about other options such as applying for a Debt Relief Order or bankruptcy. You can get debt advice free from charities – you don't need to use a debt management company that charges a fee. Our local debt service is provided by our law centre but there are national phone services available too: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • South West London Law Centres: swllc.org/get-advice/debt • National Debtline: nationaldebtline.org • StepChange: www.stepchange.org
(4e)	Help with mental health and wellbeing	Struggling with money can be stressful and mental health problems can make it harder to earn and manage money. You should speak to your GP if you're experiencing depression and anxiety – the NHS have info about treatment options for these conditions: www.nhs.uk/mental-health/conditions/clinical-depression/treatment. You can also contact Talk Wandsworth, an NHS service that offer free help with problems such as stress, worry and low mood: www.talkwandsworth.nhs.uk.
